VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, MARCH 5, 1868. NO. 177.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

OXFORD, N. C., March 3, 1868.

Messrs Editors: The Court House at this place was discovered to be on fire, to night, about 9 o'clock. There was only a small blaze issuing up through the floor of the County Register's Office, when first discovered, but underneath the floor, by cutting with an axe, it was apparent that the fire had been burning for several hours at a slow rate,—not however causing much damage.

Persons who were in the office, during the evening, discovered the smell of smoke, but supposed it came from the chimney, as the day was very windy. The cause of the fire is unknown, though it is certain the fire must have commenced there during the day; perhaps was accidentally dropped in a hole in the floor by the person who carried fire there this morning, or by some one smoking a cigar there during the day, as this is court week.

Governors Graham and Bragg are in town.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

In pursuance of previous notice, a very large number of the Conservative white men of Alexander county assembled at Taylorsville, the 21st. ult., for the purpose of organizing for the coming campaign.

On motion, Dr. J. R. Wilson was appointed Chairman, and Col. Moses Teague was requested to act as Secretary.

After a few brief remarks by A. M. Bogle, Esq., explaining the objects of the meeting, calls were made for R. F. Armfield, Esq., of Wilkesboro, who happened to be present, on his return home from Iredell court; who entertained the people for an hour and a half with one of his telling speeches, on the impending degradation and ruin of North Carolina, by negro suffrage, negro rule, and negro supremacy! and the wire workings of the Radical Republicans, generally.

At the close of Col. Armfield's thrilling speech, the "Resolutions of the State Conservative Convention," which was held in Raleigh, on the 5th., were adopted unanimously.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

J. R. WILSON, Chairman.

MOSES TEAGUE, Secretary.

THE FIRST CHEESE FACTORY.

We are pleased to chronicle the fact that a responsible company has been formed, buildings erected, and the machinery ordered, for the manufacture of cheese in this county. It is in the hands of such persons as will assuredly give the enterprise a complete trial. A competent Cheese Maker from New York is engaged in it, who feels sanguine of success. We shall soon see the matter fairly tested, and there is no doubt in our mind, that in a short time this pioneer cheese factory will develope the fact that the Mountains of North Carolina are as capable of producing as good an article of cheese, at less cost, as any portion of the world. In a few years, this enterprise, small as it may be now, will practically teach our farmers that they can get rich on the grasses but will become poor on corn. We hail the enterprise with great joy, and most heartily wish it and all concerned in it God speed. It is but the beginning of the material improvement of the condition of our people and section.—Asheville News.

COL. WM. S. DEVANE.—The nomination of this gentleman for Judge of this Judicial District is most acceptable to the bar and the people at large. A lawyer of close application and much experience, and a gentleman of the highest standing, his election would add to the enviable reputation which the bench of North Carolina has always possessed.

The nomination has, as it always should, sought the man, and the people of the District could not elevate to the bench a more incorruptible citizen or careful lawyer. We are not advised whether Col. Devane will accept the nomination, but feel assured that he is deeply sensible of this flattering demonstration of the unsought and unexpected expression of confidence in him, and fully alive to the importance of every one submitting to great personal inconvenience in the present crisis. He will therefore give the subject much consideration before refusing to accept the trust which has been reposed in him.—Wil. Journal.

Suppose it had been predicted that the President of the United States would be impeached and tried before the ex President of the Confederate States was? How absurb it would have appeared. Yet such has been the course of events, that the Radical North has forgotten its animosity towards Mr. Davis, while it has concentrated its wrath upon the President. True, the effect of this excitement will be to turn somewhat the current of malignity from the South, and so to give us some respite.—New Orleans Bulletin.

Notwithstanding General Grant long since issued an order by which the public were informed that no unauthorized military companies were allowed to parade in this city, last night a large number of armed negroes traversed the streets, with drums and fifes, quite unmolested. Straws show, &c.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Gazette, 3rd.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a respectable volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by parties, who are indifferent to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy. 'In other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been variant. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made, from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864." A safe Counsellor suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700 besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11 It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 4 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX, that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act makes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay, in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness, in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the VERY FINEST and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

Conservative State Executive Ticket.

FOR GOVERNOR,

ZEBULON B. VANCE,

OF MECKLENBURG.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,

COL. EDWARD D. HALL,

OF NEW HANOVER.

YESTERDAY.

The Report of the Finance Committee, in the so-called, on yesterday, was adopted.—The proceedings will give some idea of its features. We deem it necessary to remark here, that we do not consider it worth while to cumber our columns with the various jumbling and incoherent matters that are before the "Convention." The so-called Constitution, when published as an entirety, will show the patch-work of the body.

A Report from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, adverse to Mr. Williams, of Sampson, the Conservative Incumbent, was made. We presume that the Jacobins will oust him, in the face of law and decency. If the "play were worth the candle," enquiry should be instituted into the right of several of the mongrels to their seats,—beginning with Daddy Cowles, who was not allowed to register, even. If it could be proved, however, that he, or any other Radical, was as clearly disqualified as Jefferson Davis, it would make no difference with men who have no regard for sworn duty.

Mr. Holt threw a bombshell into the ranks of the mongrels, which scattered them like a rock thrown among a pack of curs.—They yelped hideously and refused even to let the whole of his resolutions have a reading. But they are on record, and trace the logical consequences of Holden's encouragement of the assassination of President Lincoln, with a bold and fearless pen. Mr. Holt always stands up to the rack, "fodder or no fodder." Wonder if the hybrids wouldn't like to expel him!

THE MONGREL JUDICIARY TICKET.

Heretofore, the State of North Carolina has not only had an admirable Judicial system, but, as a whole, an unexceptionable Judiciary. The present Judges of the State, on the Supreme and Superior Court bench, generally speaking, are men of legal experience and capacity and high personal integrity. The Conservatives, in their nominations, have retained these gentlemen on their ticket, and, for the new Districts and appointments, have brought forward some of the best talent and character in the State. The mongrels, on the other hand, generally ignoring the present excellent incumbents, have put in nomination a set of men, for the Judgeships, who are without qualifications, and who, if elected, would bring the whole system of North Carolina judicature into disrepute and contempt. If they are to constitute the Judiciary of the State, it will not command the respect due to an illiterate magistracy at a country cross-roads.

The mongrel candidate for Judge, in the Eleventh District, J. W. Bowman, has never received a Superior Court license.

Cannon, in the 12th, District, is a necessity lawyer—he "knows no law." It is said that his other attainments are on a par with his legal acquirements. He spells January with a G, and Andrew with a capital A in the middle.

C. C. Pool, the Corporal, who aspires to be a Judge in the 1st, District, barely got through on his examination for license, we have been informed.

E. W. Jones, in the 2nd., will "go through the motions" of a Judge with great animation and vivacity.

Darius (Phœbus! what a name) H. Starbuck, in the 8th., is universally known as the laughing-stock of the Federal Court, in his capacity as District Attorney.

Sam Watts, in the 6th., has an sleepiness reputation—that's all.

D. L. Russell, Jr., of Brunswick, for the 4th. District, though a tolerably pert youth, is very innocent of law,—almost as innocent as a child unborn.

Gen. G. W. Logan, in the 9th, can look like a very owl for wisdom, but it is all in the look. We will venture that he cannot open a Court, to-day, according to "the form in such cases made and provided."

ORDINANCE FOR RELIEF.

On Tuesday, the ordinance of Mr. Rodman, of Beaufort, entitled "an ordinance for the relief of the people," was adopted by the Convention. Mr. Rodman thinks it is the best the Convention can do for the people. We presume, like all other stay laws of the kind, it will not be pronounced by the Courts in conformity with the Constitution of the United States. We judge it is no more constitutional, than would be a law preventing the utter sacrifice of property by arresting forced sales, until the debtor's property shall bring nearly its reasonable, intrinsic value. A law of the latter kind would give more relief than any other, and, so far as we can learn, would meet the wishes of the people generally. The ordinance of Mr. Rodman has several serious objections. It protects only classes of debtors and not every honest debtor. It might relieve the few, but would not relieve the many. Its general feature is to make certain classes of debtors pay a tenth of their debts, annually, but affords no relief to debtors who owe old debts for lands or for labor, &c. Moreover, it is designed to help the ratification of a most odious Constitution. We shall publish it soon, and hope that our legal friends all over the State will riddle it, and show its real character. To compel four-fifths of the large debtors of the State to pay one-tenth of their debts, annually, would take all their property at the first forced sale.

P. S. The vote, by which the ordinance was adopted, was reconsidered, last night.

EXPENSES OF THE CONVENTION.

North Carolina has never before been cursed by so illiterate, so incompetent and so expensive a body, as the "so called" Convention now sitting in the Capitol.—She has never had a Legislature in session, that was not vastly its superior in intelligence and respectability. Its Radicalism, its utter ignorance of the necessities of the people, what they need and what is essential to their future welfare, are positively unbearable.

The Congress authorized it, without any legitimate authority itself, to make a Constitution. Such an instrument has generally been regarded as embodying the great principles of organic law, leaving out all matter which properly pertains to a legislative body, frequently elected by the people, amid the ordinary changes which take place every few years in every community. A Constitution is generally regarded as more stable, durable and more difficult to change, than the ordinary statutes of legislation. But this body scarcely takes up a question or article of the Constitution, that it does not attempt to embody every thing that occurs to the ignoramuses of the body, as necessary for the present exigency. If it were possible that the people of North Carolina should be foolish enough to adopt the Constitution, which these partisan tinkers and numskulls are now drafting, five years will not elapse before the people would become clamorous for its amendment.

The Northern squatters, who have come among us to Radicalize the State for their especial benefit, but who will leave North Carolina the moment their schemes fail to pay, seem bent upon providing a Constitution for us, which must be something like those in their native States, without once considering the poverty of our people, and their deep seated habits, prejudices, customs and general characteristics, which will not, perhaps, in the next twenty years, require a moiety of the changes they are making in our organic law. The only object they can have in view, for the multiplication of offices, and the schemes of progress they are concocting, is to make easy berths for those new comers, who hope to keep the wool over the eyes of the negroes for a term of years.

Almost every species of legislation they are embarking in. Divorce cases, which should be left to the decision of the Courts, are increasing, and every appliance is used, to keep the hands here, at $3 per day, who ought to be in the fields making corn.—Every day they are here, costs the State considerably over $1,000. Immense quantities of printed matter, postage pre-paid, is sent out daily by the Sergeant-at-Arms, after the manner of Congress, by the Radical members alone, at, it is believed, the expense of the people of the State. If the few Conservative members send off any mail matter, it is at their own expense.—Was any thing of the kind ever before heard of in North Carolina? Conservative members do not understand it. Various attempts have been made by them to have a Committee to investigate the matter, but, no sooner is the thing named, than the resolution is tabled.

The Convention has not, to this day, elected a Printer. When one was proposed, it was stated that the military would have the printing done. Yet every one knows that the printing is all done at the office of the Radical candidate for Governor. What the Convention is to cost the people of North Carolina, no one can now estimate.—It is, perhaps, not too much to say, that it will require $100,000 to foot the bills. And then the half starving people of North Carolina must return that amount to the State Treasury, in addition to the heavy amount required to carry on the government, under the requisitions of the new Constitution, if it should be ratified. Large additions are to be made to the expenses of our Court system. Four-fifths of the white people of the State are not able to educate their own children, and yet we have extravagant schemes of internal improvement, of public education for the blacks,—for the whites will not send their children to the same schools,—visionary schemes of paying the interest on the public debt, for building a Penitentiary, and Heaven knows what all, when three-fourths of the people are bankrupt and unable to pay 20 cts. in the dollar of their private indebtedness! People of North Carolina! Open your eyes to these enormities before it is too late! To delude the people they have talked of relief, but it is all talk. No substantial relief has yet been given, nor will it be by such a body.

"A PUBLIC LIAR."

A friend informs us that W. W. Holden, in the Standard of yesterday, charges the Senior Editor of the Sentinel with being "a public liar," because the Sentinel has reproduced an article from his paper in June, 1861, in which the question is asked, "who will plot for the heads of Abe Lincoln and Gen. Scott?"

The Senior Editor of the Sentinel could not make affidavit, that such a charge, made against him by the said W. W. Holden, can or will damage him, and therefore he does not sue the said W. W. Holden for libel, which he certainly would do, if any gentleman were thus to charge him.

The Senior Editor does not feel any concern about what W. W. Holden says of him. His own character for truth and integrity will be vouched for by every man, woman and child in the State, who knows him, who is not warped or prejudiced by mean, low, partizan malice. He denies that the expression, "Who will plot for the heads of Abe Lincoln and Gen. Scott?" was written or was selected by him for the Standard, to the best of his knowledge and belief, or that he ever approved of the expression.—By whoever written or selected for the Standard, it was done with the approval of the Editor, W. W. Holden, at the time,—no one else having authority to control his columns.

The Senior Editor of the Sentinel can prove, that on several occasions, about the time that the article in question appeared in the Standard, W. W. Holden gloated over the paragraph, as being one of the sharpest, smartest things that he had done, and that it put him square with the advocates of the war.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

MORNING SESSION.

TUESDAY, March 3, 1868.

Mr. Forkner, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, submitted a report in regard to the contested seat at present occupied by Mr. Marler, of Yadkin, declaring that J. M. Marshall was entitled to the seat.

Mr. Durham said the report was taken only from one statement; he moved that it be printed by to-morrow morning.

The House refused to print.

Mr. Candler moved the adoption of the report.

Mr. Durham thought this a very strange proceeding. He read from various statements and election returns, showing conclusively Mr. Marler's clear majority. He read, also, an official statement from one of Gen. Canby's staff officers, declaring Mr. Marler duly elected. In alluding to the understanding that was tacitly understood to have existed, when all the Conservatives voted to table a general resolution investigating the claims of several gentlemen on this floor, he said that Republican members had sprung these special cases, (Messrs. Marler and Williams, of Sampson,) in order to oust two Conservative gentlemen, to make room for a couple of Radicals. Mr. Marler has had no chance to defend himself; he has not been invited to go before the Committee, and, without one word, you introduce a report to expel him. He (Mr. Marler) has, under the laws of this State, a right to 30 days' notice and a right to bring in evidence in the matter. Here are two conflicting statements, and you base your argument on the one favorable to your side, and reject the other because it is a truthful one, and officially shows that Mr. Marler is legally entitled to a seat in this body. You would not pursue this matter if the case was reversed—if Mr. Marler was a Radical and Mr. Marshall a Conservative. You would not, as you do now, utterly reject one statement and give credence to another, that has not an earthly shadow of a claim to more plausibility. If you persist in forcing the matter through, utterly regardless of fairness and justness to Mr. Marler, we will protest against these proceedings as an outrageous and bare-faced fraud.

Mr. Durham moved to recommit to the Committee, with power to send for persons and papers.

Mr. McCubbins said that he had signed the Report of the Committee, declaring Mr. Marshall elected; but not a single word was said to him about the existence of another statement, in the meeting of that committee. And now, since he had made this discovery, he would withdraw his assent from the Report. The only statement he had seen clearly showed the election of Mr. Marshall, and, therefore, he had signed the Report and gone to Mr. Marler and advised him to resign.

Mr. Abbot here read from a statement of the vote from each precinct, alleging a majority for Mr. Marshall.

Mr. Marler said—

Mr. President: Yesterday evening, Mr. McCubbins, one of the committee on Privileges and Elections, came to my room, after the adjournment of that Committee, and informed me that according to the return of the list of votes received from Gen. Canby, Mr. Marshall had received 48 votes more than I had. I told Mr. McCubbins that I would see the list, that I knew what the official vote was in one or two of the Counties, and in many of the Precincts, and if I could satisfy myself, from the returns, that Mr. Marshall was elected, I would at once resign. But on seeing the lists, (for there are two,) I find that, in one report sent by Gen. Canby to this Convention, Mr. Marshall received 970 votes, and I received 1159, giving me a majority over Mr. Marshall of 189 votes. In the other report, which is signed by the same officer, Mr. Marshall received 1233 and I received 1185, giving Mr. Marshall a majority of 48 votes; so it appears, from the report that I am elected; from the other report, that Mr. Marshall is elected. I know not which report is correct. I do not think either is. But one is as likely to be correct as the other.

Mr. McCubbins informs me, this morning, that the report from Gen. Canby in my favor was not shown him, while sitting on committee yesterday evening. This is strange.

Mr. Durham asked Mr. McCubbins if he saw more than one return.

Mr. McCubbins said he had not seen but one. That induced him to agree to the report.

Mr. Abbott said there was a disposition to make this report look unfair. He would ask Mr. McCubbins if there was any effort at concealment.

Mr. McCubbins said that only one report had been handed to him, and he did not know of the existence of any other. If seen previously, his opinion would have been otherwise.

Mr. Tourgee made a speech in favor of the Committee's report.

Hood (negro) also supported the report.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that this matter was rushed in here this morning, without a fair investigation. He had never seen a paper concerning the matter until this moment. Mr. Marler only wished an investigation. Why did Lt. Willard, of Gen. Canby's staff, declare Mr. Marler elected? The whole matter was in doubt. Let the matter go back to the Committee, and the affair be fairly and justly investigated; and if you produce good and legal evidence that Mr. Marshall is entitled, Mr. Marler will most cheerfully resign his seat.

Mr. Durham: If Radicals are so very willing to show to the world their great moral and christian-like qualities, why did they all vote to table a resolution looking to the investigation of the claims of all men to seats on this floor? All we wish is fair play in this matter. You can easily re-commit this matter, and all the facts and evidences in the case can be got together in a few days. You are pursuing Mr. Marler in this matter, simply because he is a Conservative. What right have you to say that one official statement is right and another wrong. Mr. Marler demands, and we, the Conservatives on this floor, demand, that this matter be referred back to the Committee, with instructions to send for persons and papers, so that Mr. Marler may produce evidence, that he has in his possession, showing his legal election.

Mr. Forkner, Chairman of the Committee, again went into a long detail, and closed by calling the previous question.

The call was sustained, and the question recurred upon Mr. Durham's motion to recommit with instructions.

The motion was lost.

Mr. Durham moved to lay the whole matter on the table.

The Chair ruled the motion out of order, as the previous question had been called.

Mr. Durham said the previous question only affected his motion to recommit.

The Chair said he had decided.

Mr. Durham: Then you decided wrongly—that's all.

The Chair put the question upon the adoption of the Report.

Mr. Durham called the yeas and nays.

The call was granted, and resulted in the following ballot:

YEAS—Messrs. Ashley, Aydlott, Blume, Bryan, Carey, (negro,) Carter, Candler, Cherry, (negro,) Chilson, Colgrove, Congleton, Cox, Dickey, Duckworth, Fisher, Forkner, French, of Bladen, French, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, Fullings, Gahagan, Galloway, (negro,) Garland, Garrett, Glover, Graham, of Montgomery, Grant, of Wayne, Gully, Gunter, Hayes, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) Heaton, Highsmith, (negro,) Hobbs, Hood, (negro,) Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Washington, King, of Lincoln, Kinsey, Laflin, Lee, (negro,) Logan, Long, May, Mayo, (negro,) Morton, Mullican, Newsom, Parks, Petree, Pierson, (negro,) Ray, Rhodes, Robbins, (negro,) Rodman, Rose, Smith, Stilwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourgee, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker, and Williamson, (negro.)

NAYS—Messrs. Baker, Dowd, Durham, Ellis, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Hay, Hodnett, Holt, Legg, Lennon, McCubbins, Merritt, Moore, Sanderlin, Stilly, and Williams, of Sampson.

Mr. Durham offered the following protest:

This is a gross outrage perpetrated upon Mr. Marler, without giving him an opportunity to defend himself, and for partisan purposes. We, therefore, solemnly protest against its passage.

(Signed,) P. DURHAM,
E. M. HOLT,
J. H. ELLIS,
J. B. HARE,
JNO. W. GRAHAM,
ALEX. WILLIAMS,
WM. MERRITT,
THOS. SANDERLIN,
P. HODNETT.

Mr. Tourgee objected to the protest, as disrespectful to the Convention, and false in fact, and objected to its being entertained, and moved that it be not allowed.

Mr. Durham: That is our protest. We think it is an outrage, and we demand that it go on the Journal.

The Chair decided that it could go on the Journal.

Mr. Tourgee said that his motion, not to entertain it, was made before the Chair had rendered its decision in the matter, and thus the protest became the property of the house.

Pending the decision of this point, Mr. Marshall, on motion of Mr. Heaton, came forward and was sworn in.

On motion of Mr. Bradley, Mr. Marler was allowed his mileage and "per diem" up to the present time.

Here the Chair repeated its decision in regard to entering the protest upon the Journal.

Mr. Tourgee argued against the decision for some time.

The Chair asked for some little time to thoroughly consider the matter.

Hood (negro) said that a similar protest had been offered—one that he and others had objected to—the Chair was granted time to consider, and the first thing he knew the protest was entered on the record, by order of the Chair, and he was afraid the Chair would do the same by this one, if the matter was passed over now. He wished a direct vote on it now.

Mr. Bryan objected to its going on the record.

The President desired him to settle the point of order. (Loud calls for the question.)

The question was put on the rejection of the protest, and it was carried.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that they were just as well satisfied, as if they had allowed the matter to go on record.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Report of the Committee on Punishment, Penal Institutions, etc.

SEC. 2. Mr. Rodman offered this addition: "That murder, and also arson, burglary, and rape, shall be punishable with death, if the Legislature shall so enact."

Mr. Welker objected to making any other crime but "murder" capital.

Mr. Nicholson was also opposed to Mr. Rodman's amendment.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost.

Mr. Bradley, as a member of the committee, felt it was his duty to protest against the report, from the fact that the crime of rape, which he regarded as a hundred-fold more hellish than murder, was only intended to be punished by being put in the Penitentiary. He would protest against it. If it was in his power to discriminate between the two crimes, he would rather see a wilful murderer go free, than not hang a man who committed a rape upon a virtuous woman.

After a good deal of debate, the vote on Mr. Rodman's amendment was, on motion of Hood, (negro,) reconsidered. The question recurred upon the amendment, and it was carried.

The section as amended was then adopted.

Section 3 was adopted.

Section 4 was verbally amended and adopted.

Section 5: Harris, of Wake, (negro) moved to strike out the word "shall" and insert the word "may."

This created a long debate, and before a definite conclusion was reached, the House, on motion of Mr. Colgrove, adjourned.

NIGHT SESSION.

TUESDAY, March 3, 1868.

The ordinance of Relief, introduced by Mr. Rodman, some weeks ago, was the special order.

Mr. Rodman took the floor, and proceeded to explain the ordinance, section by section. He claimed that it was intended not only to relieve the debtor, but also the creditor, and that if contained no taint of repudiation. He read extracts from letters from gentlemen thoroughly identified with the Republican party, telling him that if the Convention did not pass some such measure before they adjourned, that the Constitution would be overwhelmingly defeated.

Mr. Congleton opposed the bill.

Mr. Hodnett said that this whole cry of relief came not from the poor working man, but from the rich man—the large land holder. They were crying out for relief from debts that they owed to poor men. Is this justice? Is this right? In the course of his remarks he characterized the homestead report, recently submitted to this Convention, and this measure of relief and others like it, to be nothing more nor less than repudiation. He would protest against it.

Mr. Jones, of Washington, spoke long and earnestly against the measure.

Mr. Rodman moved the previous question.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, wished to speak upon this subject, but was not allowed to do so by loud cries of "question," question."

The call for the previous question was sustained, and the yeas and nays were called upon the passage of this ordinance, and resulted, yeas 48, nays 42.

Mr. Tourgee gave notice that he would move to reconsider the vote just taken.

Mr. Rich moved to take up his resolution, raising a committee of two from each Congressional District to examine and recommend what ordinances, bills, &c., should be acted upon by this Convention, in order that this Convention should adjourn as soon as possible, submit the Constitution and get the State represented in the Chicago Convention.

The resolution was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Punishments and Penal Institutions was next taken up.

Mr. Ashley took the floor, the question being on the 5th section. After speaking some time upon the section under debate, he offered this substitute: "For the prevention and correction of pauperism and crime, the General Assembly is authorized to establish and maintain, or aid in so doing, such institutions for correction and reformation as may be deemed necessary and practicable."

Pending further debate, it was suggested that no quorum was present, and the House, on motion, adjourned.

NOTE.—Mr. Durham said the reason he voted yea upon Mr. Rodman's Relief Ordinance was because the people would have an opportunity to vote upon it separately from the Constitution, though he believed the whole matter to be unconstitutional.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, said that had not the previous question been called, he would have offered the same substitute that he did on a previous occasion. He, therefore, voted "aye."

MORNING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, March 4, 1868.

Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Logan, of the Convention.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, presented a report from the Committee on Contingent Expenses, allowing an account of W. W. Holden & Son for $934.26. The report was adopted.

Mr. Fullings presented the report from the Committee on Privileges and Elections in the case of the contested seat, now occupied by Mr. Williams, of Sampson, Conservative, declaring that Lorenzo Hall, (Radical,) is entitled to it.

A motion was made to suspend the rules and adopt the report, but, after various objections and points of order, the subject was postponed.

Mr. Holt offered the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, John Wilkes Booth did assassinate Abraham Lincoln, late President of the United States, and W. W. Holden has been charged with using language calculated to incite said Booth to the commission of the foul crime, by calling the said President "tyrant," "fool," "despot" and "robber," and

WHEREAS, The said W. W. Holden did publish in a newspaper, called the North Carolina Standard, that a certain "Mr. S—— desired to get just one good shot at old Abe," meaning the said President, Abraham Lincoln, and

WHEREAS, The said W. W. Holden did, on the 11th day of May, A. D. 1861, publish in said paper, called the North Carolina Standard, that a certain man, whom he now calls traitor, did know where to find "Abe Lincoln," meaning the said President of the United States, and his (the traitor's) men would follow "Old Abe" to the death, and

WHEREAS, On the 5th day of June, A. D. 1861, the said W. W. Holden, in the said paper, called the N. C. Standard, breathing hostility and hatred to the Union, malice and assassination of the President, did ask of two hundred thousand rebels, then in arms, "who would plot for the heat of Abe Lincoln?" meaning the President; and

WHEREAS, Proof of these sayings and doings, on the part of the said W. W. Holden, are said to be in the State Library; and a citizen of Raleigh, being in search of the same, was expelled from the said Library, and forbade to enter the same, by the said W. W. Holden, then acting Provisional Governor; and

WHEREAS, The "plot for the head" of Abraham Lincoln was formed, as the said W. W. Holden has asked, and the said President, Abraham Lincoln, was "followed" to the death by the means, and in the manner, indicated in the said newspaper, called the N. C. Standard, and by the said W. W. Holden, the owner, publisher and editor thereof; therefore,

Resolved, and it is hereby solemnly resolved, In the name of all the sovereign-legal people of North Carolina, (without regard to color,) in Convention assembled, That these charges and allegations be enquired into—and especially, if the said W. W. Holden had any complicity with John Wilkes Booth, in that horror of horrors, that crime of crimes, the assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

Resolved, further, That the Chair appoint a committee, who shall be empowered to send for persons and papers, and report upon the facts herein stated—not more than one of the committee to be of the political party of the said W. W. Holden.

While the Clerk was reading them,

Mr. French, of Chowan, arose and said that the subject matter of the resolutions had nothing to do with the business of the Convention.

Mr. Holt insisted that they should be read.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) and Mr. Abbott also objected.

Mr. Durham said that Mr. Holt had a right to have his resolutions read, and the refusal of the House to have them read was in keeping with their usual conduct.

The Chair put the question to the House, whether the resolutions should be read or not.

The House refused to have them read, and, on motion of Mr. French, of Chowan, the Secretary was ordered to return them to their introducer, and to take no notice of them.

SPECIAL ORDER—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON IMMIGRATION.

The question recurred upon the substitute of Mr. Candler.

Mr. Rich said the substitute was to create an entirely new office, and so much had been said in regard to expense, he hoped the substitute would be rejected.

Mr. Candler thought the House did not wish to take any action in the matter whatever.

Mr. Abbott said that it was useless to pass the substitute, as it was already in the Constitution.

Mr. Hobbs said he had heard enough foolery about New Year's and other States. They had been here for a few weeks and had done and talked about everything but the business that brought them here, i. e. making a Constitution. He thought that if New York, New Jersey, Ohio, and other Northern States, had representatives on this floor, why dont they come forward and take their seats?

While Mr. Hobbs was speaking, the Chair announced the next

SPECIAL ORDER—REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The Report was read.

Mr. Tourgee said he saw no provision made for paying the old debt of the State. He offered, as section 4, a provision, to the effect that the Legislature, after 1880, shall tax real and personal estate, and the sum realized shall be set apart as a Sinking Fund for the payment of the public debt.

Mr. Abbott offered a substitute for section 4, as follows: "Until the Bonds of the State shall be at par, the General Assembly shall have no power to contract any new debt or pecuniary obligation in behalf of the State, except to supply a casual deficit, or for suppressing invasion or insurrection, unless it shall, in the same bill, levy a special tax to pay the interest annually; and the General Assembly shall have no power to give or lend the credit of the State in aid of any person, association, or corporation, except to such Railroads and other works of Internal Improvements, as are unfinished, and in which the State has a direct pecuniary interest, unless the subject be submitted to a direct vote of the people of the State, and be approved by a majority of those who shall vote thereon."

Mr. Abbott addressed the Convention upon the various features of the report in a speech of some length.

In the 1st. section, Mr. King, of Lenoir, moved that a capitation tax shall be laid between the ages of 21 and 45, instead of 21 and 50.

The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Tourgee objected to the 1st. section of the majority report as cumbrous.

He moved to substitute the 1st. section of the minority report.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, desired to know how the poor of a county was to be supported, how bridges erected, &c., and other county expenses defrayed, when the poll tax is levied for a special purpose? It would be well, perhaps, to limit poll taxes, &c. Now, the Convention takes away the power to collect private debts, and imposes heavy taxes. He believed the proposed arrangement impracticable.

Mr. Colgrove said that the people would be much better pleased, if the poll tax went for educational purposes. In his county, excessive poll taxes had been levied.

Mr. Rodman opposed Mr. Tourgee's amendment, and, in his remarks, said that this was the "signal gun" of the war between "numbers and property." He believed that property should bear its just proportion of the tax, but this spirit of agrarianism, which such legislation would cause to spread over the State, would result in nothing more nor less than an unjust crusade against property,—laying enormous and extravagant taxes upon property,—without keeping within a fair and equitable proportion.

Various gentlemen, taking different sides of the question, next occupied the floor.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, desired to know where one million and a half of dollars was to be raised annually. Where is it to come from? Say that the poll-tax will bring in two hundred thousand dollars. Now, can that be thrown away? You say tax property; well, that will drive men from the State. Let us keep the first article as it is. A moderate poll tax will be necessary. He would like to see the taxes raised from one race applied to their education, but, anyways, we will have to face a million and a half every year. Where is it to come from, if two hundred thousand is to be taken from the poll?

The question recurring upon Mr. Tourgee's amendment, the yeas and nays were called for, and, the call being sustained, the roll was called and stood, yeas 27, nays 80.

Mr. Candler moved to strike out $2 in 10th line, and insert $1.50.

The yeas and nays were called, resulting in yeas 32, nays 73.

The section was then adopted.

In section 2, Mr. French, of Chowan, moved to add the following words: "But in no one year shall more than 25 per cent. thereof be applied to the latter purpose."

The Chairman of the Committee accepted it.

Mr. Tourgee moved to strike out all after the word "education," including Mr. French's amendment.

Hood, (negro) hoped the amendment offered by Mr. Tourgee would be rejected. He thought it was just as necessary to make some provision for the poor man as for educational purposes. Besides, it would be urged by a certain class that property was being taxed to support colored people, they being the poorest class.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost.

The section was then adopted.

Section 3 was read, when Mr. Rodman offered an amendment, so that the General Assembly could tax trades, franchises, professions, and incomes. He said that the object was this: as the section stood, neither bar keepers, inn-keepers, or shows of any description whatever, could be taxed, or lawyers, or other professions. The Legislature ought to be allowed, at all events, to tax shows, bar keepers, hotels, and saloons. They are able to pay.

Mr. Heaton endorsed the section as it stood, and thought Mr. Rodman's amendment was entirely unnecessary.

Mr. Rodman added the following proviso to his amendment: Provided, that no income shall be taxed when the property itself, from which the income is derived, is taxed.

The amendment was adopted.

The section, as amended, was adopted.

Section 4 was read.

The question recurred upon Mr. Tourgee's substitute.

Mr. Holt moved to strike out "shall" and insert "may."

Mr. Abbott and Mr. Heaton opposed it.

Mr. Tourgee said, by the insertion of the word "may," the Legislature is allowed to go on from year to year without paying.—That was squinting at repudiation. He was called a repudiator, but he wished all who had said so to come up and stand up to the rack, and not sneak out at a side door into a back alley. He had fought the 6th. article of the Bill of Rights, assuming the old State debt, like a man. It is now settled, and I am now amazed at this barefaced attempt at repudiation.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, replied that a change had come over the "spirit of his dreams," and went on to urge Mr. Hobbs' amendment.

Mr. Rodman spoke for some time in opposition to it, saying that Mr King appeared in a new character—that of a repudiator. (Mr. King denied the charge.) Mr. R. continued: Now in less than 12 years North Carolina would be able to pay the interest on her debts, &c.

Mr. King: How about private debts?

Mr. Rodman: We give private individuals ten years to pay and the State twelve to get ready to pay, &c.

Mr. Hobbs' amendment was put to a vote and lost.

The question recurred upon Mr. Tourgee's section, to come in between sections 3 and 4, as section 4, which was adopted.

The substitute of Mr. Abbott for section 4 next came up. Mr. A said that its provisions were so plain, that he did not think it necessary to discuss it.

Mr. Heaton desired further consideration of this amendment. He was not ready to commit himself.

Mr. Abbott said that the amendment could be passed over without his objection.

It was accordingly passed over.

Section 4 was then adopted.

Sections 5, 6 and 7 were adopted.

The question recurred on the report, as a whole, as amended.

The yeas and nays were called, and the vote stood, yeas 83, nays 15.

Mr. Tourgee moved to reconsider the vote taken last night upon Mr. Rodman's ordinance.

Mr. Watts moved to lay that motion on the table.

Mr. Tourgee, who had the floor, gave way for Mr. Rich, who introduced an ordinance to amend the charter of the Chatham Railroad Company.

On motion, the Convention adjourned until 7½ this evening.

INGRATITUDE.

When a portion of Benning's Brigade were committing their famous outrage on Hargett Street, Gov. Vance, at the imminent risk of a friend of W. W. Holden, suddenly appeared among them, and, at much personal risk, (as they did not know him at first,) succeeding in quelling their rage.—He had come up Fayetteville Street, thereby missing the frightened cause of the wrath of these passing soldiers, who had gone down by a back street to the Executive Mansion. His burglarious entry is well known, but not so well, perhaps, the truth, that he took possession of His Excellency's bed-chamber, and turned off the gas almost to extinction; and was there found shaking with fear, on the Governor's return. The stupefied man listened to the account given of the riot, and at its close asked: "Governor, have you any spirits? I feel very much fatigued." Zeb ordered a bottle of first-rate dark brandy and loaf sugar to match—both, of course, blockade, and both at that time very great rarities. The trembling fugitive mixed a sneelgeater, and, having tossed it off, felt better, and opened his mouth and spake in gratitude to his great deliverer. Waxing eloquent, and squeezing the hand of the kind-hearted Governor, he thus spake, in conclusion: "Politics may divide us, Governor, but I shall never, NEVER forget this night; and under no circumstances can I ever be induced to lift the weight of my finger against you," etc., etc.; and grateful salt water stood in his precious eyes.

About this time, and while all were feeling good together over the blockade brandy, Benning's Band, having concluded to serenade Gov. Vance, came in the back yard and commenced a very fierce overture. The first blast brought back the old fatigue, and the persecuted patriot, believing that the bloody Reds were after him again, jumped up and looked around him wildly for some place of safety. As soon as he found that it was only music—and not such as delighted Charles the Twelfth, a flash of fire arms—he became calm, and, locking himself again in the bed-room, allowed his protector to go out and entertain the serenaders.

Since then, this grateful gentleman urged that a reward of $25,000 should be offered for the head of his benefactor!!!

THE CASE OF MR. MARLER.—We publish, to-day, without further present comment, the infamous proceedings of the hybrid Convention, in the matter of Mr. Marler's ejection. We shall remark upon them, hereafter,—simply observing, to day, that the action of the mongrels, in this case, was nothing more than might have been expected from so shameless and contemptible a source.

AFRAID.—We understand that the X P G has a list of appointments, extending from the 10th. inst to some time in April. For fear of consequences, he is to carry quite a body-guard, headed by Capt. Settle, with him, and his appointments are called "Republican" mass meetings, in order to preclude the possibility of the brave man, "who is afraid of no man on earth," being met on the hustings! Again we dare him to meet Zeb. Vance on the stump; and we again repeat he would sooner thrust his "precious" head into a lion's mouth!

CANVASSERS.

The following additional and excellent appointments are hereby announced:

Haywood County—Maj. W. M. Rhea, F. M. Davis, Esq., R. H. Penland, Esq., Dr. H. M. Rogers, William Wilson, Esq., B. B. Edmondson, Esq., Dr. R. V. Welch, W. L. Norwood, Capt. W. Lenoir, Capt. H. M. Love.

Jackson—Col. W. H. Thomas, Col. Jas. R. Love, Col. T. D. Bryson, Capt. John H. Alley, Joseph Keener, Esq.

Clay—Col. Henry Plott, Maj. P. C. Hughes, Col. G. G. Bustol, Capt. W. E. Tidwell, J. H. Galloway, Esq.

Cherokee—Capt. J. W. Cooper, Col. H. H. Davidson, Capt. N. G. Phillips, S. P. Sherrill, Esq., J. B. Fair, Esq.

Macon—Dr. J. M. Lyle, Capt. J. G. Crawford, John R. Ammons, Esq., Rev. Allen Ammons, Col. L. Howard.

COME OUT OF THEM!

We publish the following with pleasure. It speaks for itself. Hundreds of honest, well meaning white men have been deluded into these infamous and treasonable leagues. Let them follow the example of Mr. Simmons, now that they see the object of the Radicals is to put the white man below the level of the negro!

BRIDGEWATER, BURKE Co., N. C.
February 26th, 1868.

Editors Sentinel: Please announce through the columns of your paper that I have nothing further to do with the "Red Strings" or "Union League."

I take this method of informing the public, that I have renounced all allegiance to this party, as I cannot stand negro equality.

Very respectfully,
JAMES N. SIMMONS.

COUNTY CANVASSERS! Be up and doing! Make your appointments at once!

"OUR GLORIOUS CONVENTION" has been greatly aided in its Constitutional and other unmentionable labors, by the eminently wise and dignified proceedings of the kindred Convention in Tucker Hall. The nominations there made, on the old Jeffersonian rule of honesty and capability alone, have inspired with confidence and renewed zeal, the drooping spirits of that patriotic assemblage. The nomination of our most cherished citizen to the highest office is hailed as an omen of certain success to our glorious cause. The eloquent address, spoken by that statesman and orator, on his acceptance, which was listened to by nearly all the members, has lifted them up into altitudes never before reached within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. The peroration was wildly grand. Fancy the speaker standing in his stirrups, his beautiful eye extensively, fists spasmodically and defiantly clenched and in boxing position, spouting thusly: "I fear no man under the canopy of Heaven," said the inspired orator. "I am an American citizen. I have fought with powers before the throne, and behind the throne. I fought Buchanan.—I fought Ellis. I fought Clark. I fought Davis, and he mobbed me, but I fought him until he fell. I will stand by you now as I did then. * * * * On the night of the 1st day of January, 1867, a body of my colored friends escorted me to the African Church, in this City, for fear of assassination, when, in the name of the Union men of this State, I declared for universal suffrage. * * * Victory will now perch on our banner, traitors will be hurled from power (tail-firstwards,) and North Carolina return to the Union, loyal end-foremost."

The applause was immense; the effect electric; the enthusiasm boisterous and boundless. The orator sunk in his seat, (loyal end-foremost.) The Unsophisticated Heroes of Africa bellowed and screamed; our "best benefactors" winked their sharp, cunning eyes, and each stuck his tongue in his left cheek; the ladies in the gallery (f. w. c.) waved their embroidered cambrics in ecstatic delight, and sonorous and sleepy old Gwanny awaked up and blew such a blast of triumph from his trumpet nose, that its echoes are dancing about in Tucker Hall even unto this day!

But this wonderful oratorical effort deserves, and shall receive, a more elaborate notice.

GOV. GRAHAM'S SPEECH.

The speech of Gov. Graham, which we published on yesterday, and which will be put in a form for popular distribution, by the State Executive Committee, notwithstanding its great length, will be read throughout the State. We have never perused a more calm, statesmanlike and convincing document, and it presents all the great issues of the day in a manner that cannot fail powerfully to impress even the most prejudiced mind. It is, in all respects, worthy of the great reputation of the author.

GRANVILLE.—We learn that the Conservatives of Granville had a gloriously enthusiastic meeting at Oxford, on Tuesday.—Jno. C. Taylor, Esq., presided, and R. M. Furman, Esq., acted as Secretary. The meeting was addressed at length, and ably and eloquently, by Govs. Graham and Bragg. The finest spirit prevailed and the white men of Granville are almost a unit.

Later in the same day, Dewease and McDonald, the opposing Radical candidates for Congress in this District, addressed a small crowd,—principally consisting of negroes.

There was no Court,—Judge Cilley, for some satisfactory reason, doubtless, not being in attendance.

CONSERVATIVE RALLY.

The Conservatives of Raleigh had a fine rally at the Court House, last night. Enthusiasm and excellent spirit prevailed. Speeches were made by Messrs. Gales, Russ, C. Busbee, Bledsoe, R. K. Ferrell, Q. Busbee and Badger. The State nominations were ratified by acclamation. Proceedings and further notice to-morrow.

A NICE ARTICLE.—We are indebted to our friend, R. B. Andrews, of the Fashionable Clothing Establishment on Fayetteville Street, for a box of Richard's Patent Bosoms and Collars, united,—one of the neatest, most useful and elegant inventions of the day. Call and see them and you will see a great many other articles at Andrews', which will please and captivate you.

PIANO TUNING.—We take pleasure in informing our citizens that Mr. F. W. Walter, Agent of the celebrated firm of Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore, is at present in this city, for the purpose of tuning Pianos, &c., and looking after the general interests of the firm. His valuable services may be obtained, on application at the Exchange Hotel.

J. B. Hunter, Esq., of Norfolk, is again in our City, looking after Cotton and Naval Stores with his usual energy. See announcement.

ALAMANCE.—We learn that the Conservatives of this county had a glorious rally, at Graham, on Tuesday. We hope that some friend will furnish us an account of it.

WESTERN VINDICATOR.—We have received the first number of Mr. Shotwell's newspaper, at Rutherfordton. It promises well for vigor and efficiency. Success, friend S.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Administrator's Notice: W. H. High, Adm'r. of W. H. Hood, Deceased.

Green Corn, Peas, Tomatoes and Peaches, in two and three lb. cans: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON—IMPEACHMENT.

WASHINGTON, March 4, P. M.

Judge Chase writes to the Senate, expressing, in mild and somewhat indirect terms, his nonconcurrence with some preliminary proceedings,—holding that when the Senate sits for the impeachment trial, it sits unquestionably as a Court. The Senate must necessarily receive notice of intention to impeach from the House, but the organization of the Senate into a Court should precede actual announcement of impeachment, on the part of the House, and articles of impeachment should only be presented to the Court of impeachment. No summons or other process should issue, except from the organized Court, and the rules of the Court should be formed only by the Court itself.

Chase finds himself unable to come to any other conclusions than the above, but adds:

"I am informed that the Senate has proceeded upon other views, and it is not my purpose to contest what its superior wisdom has directed."

Wade presided to-day, during the entire proceedings. This probably settles the question, whether he will vote on the final issue.

The Supreme Court is still engaged in the McCardle case. Trumbull spoke to-day. Dudley Field follows. The Court allows 12 hours to each side.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, March 4, P. M.

HOUSE.—Immediately after meeting, Jencks proceeded to urge his article, declaring that impeachment would be incomplete without charging criminal intent.

The previous question failed after the second reading, and the article was lost.

The House then went into the Committee of the Whole, to proceed with the managers to the Senate to present the articles.

The Democratic members remained in their seats. The others formed a procession and paraded to the Senate chamber.

After their return the Tennessee contested election was taken up, but postponed.

Grant has been directed to report the number of votes cast for and against the Alabama Constitution.

SENATE.—The Chair submitted a communication from Judge Chase, which was referred to a special committee.

The Sergeant-at-arms announced the impeachment managers, who approached the bar; the accompanying members arranged themselves around the back seats. Colfax was seated by Wade. Bingham read the articles. Butler's which quote largely from the President's most stinging speeches, caused a sensation.

The Chair said the Senate will take action and the managers retired.

A resolution admitting to the galleries, by ticket, was postponed.

A Committee of three Senators were appointed to notify the Chief Justice and conduct him to the Vice President's seat to-morrow, at 1 o'clock.

Several votes indicated a determination, on the part of the Senate, to adhere to its rules notwithstanding Chase's letter. Adjourned.

MARYLAND SENATOR.

ANNAPOLIS, March 4, P. M.

Four ballots for Senator. On the last, Earle 24, Thomas 25. Rest scattering.

MAINE DEMOCRACY.

BANGOR, March 4, P. M.

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling

Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe meaning to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Miner-alogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILLHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me—thus determining the value of mines, before they are off red for sale.

TERMS.—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure or being personally acquainted.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members,—six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active cooperation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violatives of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South; the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudices against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.

The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.
